
Retention Risk Self-Assessment

Identify who is at risk — before they resign

How to Use This Assessment

Rate each team member on the five dimensions below. Score 1–5 for each (1 = high concern, 5 = thriving). A total score under 10 signals an urgent retention risk.

The Five Dimensions

- Engagement

Are they present, contributing, and invested in the team?

- Recognition

Do they feel seen and valued for their work?

- Growth Opportunity

Do they see a path forward in this role?

- Workload

Is their workload sustainable and fairly distributed?

- Psychological Safety

Do they feel safe raising concerns or making mistakes?

Score Interpretation

20–25 — Thriving

Continue regular check-ins. These team members are engaged and stable.

14–19 — Watch

Schedule a proactive 1:1 within two weeks. Something may be building.

8–13 — At Risk

Act now. Have a direct conversation. Identify the specific gap.

< 8 — Urgent

Immediate intervention needed. Do not wait for them to come to you.

Suggested Actions

- ☐ Schedule individual check-ins for anyone scoring below 14
- ☐ Ask: 'What's working for you right now — and what isn't?'
- ☐ Revisit this assessment in 30 days for at-risk team members
